

María Soledad Otero

Paralegal

Tel: +54 2920-706866
Viedma, Argentina

soledad.otero79@gmail.com

PROFILE

Trilingual paralegal (Spanish, English, French) with experience in U.S. litigation and attorney background in Argentina. Combines legal drafting skills with anthropological training that enhances client communication. Remote work experience with proven ability to manage client relationships and legal workflows independently.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Paralegal, SchlacterLaw, Miami, Florida (remote position)

Nov. 2024 – present

- Support personal injury cases through complete lifecycle: legal research, discovery, document drafting, trial preparation.
- Conduct detailed client interviews to gather facts and maintain ongoing relationships.
- Draft complaints, motions, pleadings, discovery requests and interrogatories.
- Coordinate schedules, manage deadlines, conduct case evaluations for strategic decisions.

Attorney in Private Practice, Soria & Otero, Viedma and Gral. Conesa, Río Negro, Argentina

March 2020 – Nov. 2024

- Co-managed law firm with direct client responsibility across family law, civil litigation, and commercial contracts
- Counseled clients on complex matters, explaining outcomes and guiding through legal processes
- Drafted and negotiated family settlement agreements and commercial contracts tailored to client requirements
- Represented clients in mediations and court proceedings

UX Researcher, Instituto de Derecho Digital (Digital Law Institute), Viedma, Argentina

June 2022 – August 2022

- Led usability assessment of judiciary case management and E-Filing system, applying research methods to bridge legal practice and technology implementation.

Associate Lawyer, Cabrera, Ruocco y Asoc., Viedma, Río Negro, Argentina

March 2017 – February 2020

- Represented clients in civil litigation with emphasis on precise legal document preparation and thorough client consultation.

Teaching Assistant and Researcher, Universidad Nacional de Río Negro, Viedma, Río Negro

April 2018 – November 2021

- Teaching assistant for anthropology courses while conducting field research and providing legal counseling within academic research context.

Legal Advisor, LEGADOS - Instituto Latinoamericano de transmisión de la lengua y la cultura (Non-profit Organization), Montreal, Canada

March 2015 – September 2016

- Collaborated in organization's inception, securing non-profit status and drafting organizational charter.

Teaching Assistant and Researcher, University of Montreal, Canada

April 2009 – June 2012

- Research support for Urban Diversity projects and teaching assistance in anthropology department.

Customer Service and Volunteer Coordinator, Mondéquitable/Dix Mille Villages (Non-profit Organization), Montreal, Canada

October 2005 – March 2006

- Handled customer service and outreach for fair trade non-profit, including volunteer management and recruitment.

Law Intern, Freidenberg, Freidenberg & Lifsic, Buenos Aires, Argentina

March to December 2004

- Legal research and document review in aviation law practice.

ACADEMIC QUALIFICATIONS

Postgraduate Studies in Digital Law

Universidad Blas Pascal, Córdoba, Argentina, 2022

Anthropologist (B.Sc.)

Université de Montréal, Canada, 2009

Lawyer

Universidad Nacional de La Plata, La Plata, Argentina, 2004

TECHNICAL SKILLS & COMPETENCIES

Languages: Fluent in Spanish, English, and French (oral and written).

Digital Tools: Google Workspace, Microsoft Office Suite, Microsoft Teams, web-based collaboration platforms

Key Strengths: Anthropological training in ethnographic methods supports understanding diverse client contexts and translating their requirements into legal documents. Independent work capability with remote collaboration expertise. Strong organizational skills and attention to detail.